B2Win	B2Win Suite
Does not work with Infor's Web UI or the newer LN versions	Works with the newest Infor LN web UI
Old UX/UI feel and look	State of the art UX/UI. UI uses the browser and is responsive
Works with Baan/LN only	Has Rest API and is able to connect to multiple Enterprise systems ERP, CRM, Financial and others.
Must be installed on the Baan/LN Server	Can be installed on any VM machine. Works on primes or in the cloud
No administrator tools	State of the art administrator tools
No digital signature	Built in digital signature
Limited distribution functionality	Rich Distribution Functionality: - Run jobs with switches - User friendly Email Interface - Smart distribution of business documents including Recognizing the document type, parsing to separate files as needed, identifying the business partner to send to and the preferred delivery channel, supports multiple distribution channels with the ability to add custom distribution channels - Uses variables to choose different templates for documents based on language or other criteria
No history of reports' runs	keeps the history of all the reports' runs with the ability to rerun reports directly from B2Win Suite without Baan/LN
Does not support variables	Use of variables for examples in filename, Archiving path, email, document template …)
No track or record of users activities	Logging for all users activities
Does not support documents meta data	Saves documents meta data for easy retrieval of documents
Limited excel designer capability	Advanced excel designer capabilities with new user friendly and intuitive interface and work flow. - Ability to use database variable to modify ERP reports adding new fields and data to it directly from the database - Ability to add calculated fields and conditional fields - Use of pre-prepared Excel templates for example using an excel template with pivot tables, graphs and other presentation of data for sales and financial reports to help with the decision making process.
Limited PDF designer capability	Advanced PDF designer capabilities with new user friendly and intuitive interface and work flow - Design your own document background using the built in design tools - Import and use pre designed document template - Add barcodes - Concatenate PDF documents
Limited updates	NAZDAQ's flagship products which is being developed as a platform. New functionalities will be added to it starting with Query tool and report builder that will be released towards the end of 2019

NAZDAQ – Nazareth Data Quest Confidential Information. Copyright 2019